SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

On this final Sunday of the Liturgical year, we celebrate the authority of Christ. His kingship is founded upon the hypostatic union, as He is consubstantial with the Father, has all things in common with Him, and therefore has necessarily supreme and absolute dominion over all things created. Christ is also King by virtue of His role as our Redeemer, for we have been purchased by Him at a great cost. Finally, God the Father bestowed upon Christ the nations of the world as His special possession and dominion. "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me." (Matthew 28:18) Today, we look forward in hope, to the end of time when the kingdom of Jesus will be established in all its fullness to the ends of the earth. Next week, with the beginning of Advent, all our energies will become more focused on preparing earnestly for Christ's coming.

This year St Cecilia's feast day falls on a Monday. Mass will be celebrated at 8.00am at Our Lady of Victories Church. Please join us.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Jesus said "you have the poor with you always". As a result, it seems you have appeals for the poor with you always. Next Sunday, 28th November, the local branch of St Vincent de Paul will launch their Christmas Appeal to help them supply hampers to the poor. The Christmas trees with food suggestions and envelopes will be available. This year, the number of requests for help are up across the state, to a level higher than the pre virus stage. We appeal to your generosity once again. Thank you.

THOSE WHO TESTIFY TO THE TRUTH...

In today's gospel, Jesus asserts before Pilate that he is a king and clarifies that his kingdom "does not belong to this world." He rules as King by serving others rather than by dominating them; his authority is rooted in truth, not in physical force, and his Kingdom, the reign of God, is based on the Beatitudes.

Jesus has come to bear witness to the truth: about God and His love for us, about Himself as the Son of God and about us as the children of God. There are plenty of texts proving the kingship of Jesus both in the Old Testament and in the New Testament of the Bible. The first and the second readings of today also testify that Christ is the King. He is the alpha and the omega, glorified by God and coming in the clouds.

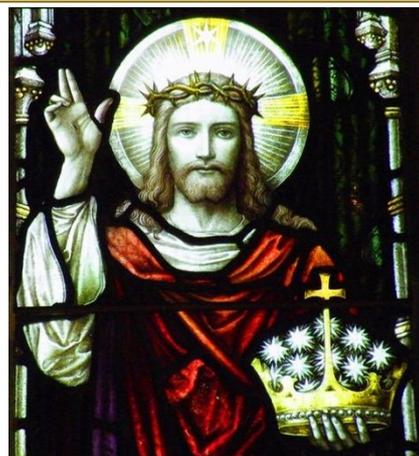

Every Kingdom has a King and vice versa. Every kingdom has subjects. Bona fide subjects of a kingdom are called citizens. There are loyal citizens (who pledge allegiance and undying loyalty to the king) and disloyal citizens. Those who obey the laws of the kingdom (the law of love and truth) are protected while the disobedient ones suffer punishments.

We live in a world of many "lies", the devil has come to divert people's attention from the truth. Christ is the truth, the way and the life. Those who live by Him have a life. The devil has come to steal and destroy souls ... and to turn them away from the saving truth. Our mission is not easy in a secularist world that is a slave to money, that tolerates only relative truths that can be manipulated at will by the powerful. To pretend to possess an absolute truth becomes insupportable and a subject of exclusion. The Truth of Jesus, Son of God and Saviour of the world, no longer has a place in public areas. If we bear witness openly, we must be ready to pay the price of our impertinence by suffering derision, ostracism and persecution. ...We are children of light; let us reject every form of deception of the devil and his subjects in the kingdom of darkness. "You shall know the truth and only the truth shall set you free" (cf. John 8:32) - lies are many, but the truth is one.

Let us by our actions and words bear united witness to the truth. Let earthly kings and kingdoms embrace the truth and work towards building up a human society where everyone finds love, justice, peace and protection.

May God be your shield and protection from earthly deceptions. May Christ reign in your life, in your family and in everything you do.

ARCHBISHOP'S CHRISTMAS APPEAL FOR LIFELINK

If you did not collect Archbishop Costelloe's letter at Mass last weekend, please collect one as you leave Mass today - or use one of the special giving envelopes which have been provided on the pews today.

We urge you to give generous support to help the work of our Archdiocesan social service agencies and our brothers and sisters who are struggling in the community.

YOU MAY MAIL YOUR GIFT IN THE REPLY PAID
ENVELOPE PROVIDED OR RETURN YOUR ENVELOPE
& DONATION TO THE PARISH ANY TIME OVER THE COMING WEEKS.

You may also donate (securely) online
by credit card at www.lifelink.com.au.

ADVENT GROUPS BEGIN NEXT WEEK!

Thank you to everyone who has expressed an interest in joining an Advent Group. We have two groups; one meeting on Tuesday evenings and another at 11am on Wednesdays. For further details, please speak to Sally - 0431 703 191.

Advent program booklets are free and can be collected after Mass today, from the Parish Office or at the first meeting. All welcome !

WHY NOT JOIN THE PARISH COUNCIL?

We invite all parishioners to consider a term on the Parish Council to help in the planning and direction of parish life, including events, programs and future developments. We meet on the fourth Wednesday of each month. A term may be 12 months - 6 years. Our next meeting is at 7pm on Wednesday, 24th November in the Parish Meeting Room.

CHRISTMAS CHOIRS

Readings for the Solemnity of Christ the King Sunday - Year B

FIRST READING Daniel 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel

I gazed into the visions of the night.
And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven,
one like a son of man.
He came to the one of great age
and was led into his presence.
On him was conferred sovereignty,
glory and kingship,
and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.
His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty
which shall never pass away,
nor will his empire be destroyed.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 92:1-2, 5

*The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.*

R: The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might,
he has girded himself with power.

R: The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

The world you made firm, not to be moved;
your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O Lord, you are.

R: The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time.

R: The Lord is king;
he is robed in majesty.

SECOND READING Apocalypse 1:5-8

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mark 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;

blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you,
Lord Jesus Christ
