COME, LET US WORSHIP

THE LORD TOGETHER

We ask everyone to please maintain a respectful silence whilst in the Church.

We appreciate your cooperation in creating a reverent and peaceful environment for prayer and reflection.

Thank you!

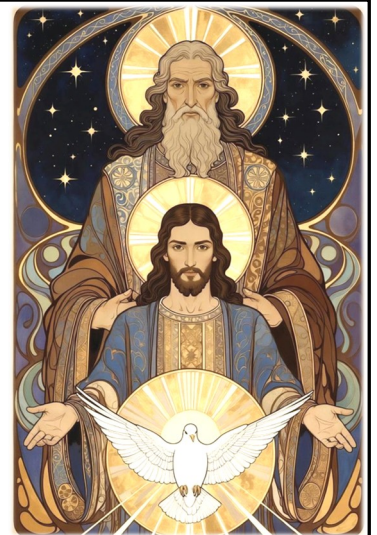

WELCOME EVERYONE!

We are pleased you could join us today.

If you are new, please introduce yourselves to those seated nearby; we'd love to get to know you!

Please also take a membership form from the back of the church, complete and return it to the Parish Office, or pop it into next week's collection basket.

Thank you.

"The holy Trinity, the one true God, is of its nature unity, equality and love, and by one divine activity sanctifies its adopted sons."
+ St. Fulgentius of Ruspe, bishop (467-533 A.D.)

ST VINCENT DE PAUL: FOOD COLLECTION WEEKEND

Baskets will be placed at the back of both churches this weekend to receive any donations of food items you may have. We thank you for your generosity and ongoing support.

THE TRUTH

“God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.”

The Truth About God: In many ways, it is a summary of the entire Christian message. Within this single verse, we find, in capsule form, the truth about God, about the world, and about ourselves. The truth about God has to do with his deepest identity, which is love (“God is love” [1 John 4:8]), and which was the motivation for Jesus’s incarnation (“God so loved the world...”). But for God’s deepest identity to be love, his deepest identity must also be personal and relational. After all, love always involves the generous acceptance of another person, as well as the generous giving of oneself to that person. And so we discover our first glimpse of the greatest mystery of the universe, the mystery the Church celebrates today in a special way: that God is a Trinity, and that from all eternity God is one divine nature and three divine persons, truly one God, but at the same time Triune in his divinity. We can never fully fathom the depths of this mystery. How can God be at the same time one and three? We cannot comprehend it fully. But we can contemplate it. And we can delight in knowing that God is not just some kind of a vague, impersonal force, as many New Age spiritualities claim; that eternity is not populated by hundreds, or thousands, or even millions of conflicting deities, as some pagan religions claim; and that God is not only all-knowing and all-powerful, not a grim and demanding taskmaster, but also all good. God is love!

The Truth About Ourselves: This verse also reveals the truth about ourselves. We are loved; we are loveable; we are known; we are pursued; we are chosen; we are wanted; we matter. Many experiences we have in this fallen world, this battleground world, seem to contradict that. As children, adolescents, and even adults, the people around us often don’t treat us according to the dignity we possess in our very selves by having been created by God in his own image and likeness. And so, we find ourselves often belittled and abused, abandoned and ignored, objectified and neglected. These experiences cause us pain, and to deal with that pain we begin to believe lies about ourselves—that we are not worthy of being loved, that we don’t need to be loved, that our desires for fulfillment and connection are unreasonable and unfulfillable. Jesus came to shatter the darkness of those lies, to release us from the spiritual and emotional chains they forge, and to heal us of the wounds beneath them. This is what it means when St. John explains the meaning of John 3:16 in the following verse, John 3:17, “For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” To save the world, to repair what is broken and redeem what is lost—that is why Jesus came. That is why Jesus continues to come, every day, through the working of the Holy Spirit, through the holy sacrifice of the Mass and Christ’s presence in the Eucharist, through the governance of all things by the Father’s providential wisdom. The Blessed Trinity is continuously unfolding a tapestry of salvation that includes the full restoration of our own broken and divided human nature. And that is why we can say, with today’s responsorial psalm: “Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever” (Daniel 3:52).

Readings for the Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity - Year A

FIRST READING Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

A reading from the book of Exodus

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Daniel 3:52-56

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

Blest your glorious holy name.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.

R: Glory and praise for ever!

SECOND READING 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son,

so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost
but may have eternal life.

For God sent his Son into the world

not to condemn the world,

but so that through him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in him will be condemned;

but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,
because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
