FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Your much appreciated support is closing the gap on our Parish finances. Both churches can continue to operate for the near future.

However, ongoing expenses, inflation and changes to insurance mean parish funds are effectively going backwards. Please consider if you're able to help increase our second collection by 20%, from $2,860 weekly to $3,420.

You can continue to contribute via the collection tray and by setting up weekly or monthly online bank transfers (please include your full name or Contributor/Envelope Number in the Payee line);

OUR VOCATION

The imagery of sheep and shepherds in the Gospel would be well understood by the Israelites, many of whom were herdsmen. Sheep were essential for their survival, providing milk, meat, clothing and prosperity. So there was a great mutual dependence between sheep and shepherd, and the O.T. consistently compares God's people as sheep who constantly stray from their shepherd, while the N.T. portrays Christ as the Good Shepherd Who never leaves His flock untended.

This is Vocations Sunday, when we're asked to consider what God is calling us to do for Him. We ask Him to help us all to recognise the voice of the Good Shepherd, and to follow Him; to understand, however, that we are not just sheep who follow, but sharers with Jesus in His mission to seek out and save those who are lost. It's a mission to get involved with the mess and the smells of this world in order to create the world which God wants. So today isn't a day to regret the shortage of priests and religious and to pray that God will plug the gaps. Rather, it's a day for all of us to commit ourselves in such a way that young people from our community will feel that a call to the priesthood or the religious life is a natural and normal way to find happiness and fulfilment in their lives; to be shepherds, and not museum guides!

But whatever God's call, it's addressed to each of us here as members of Christ's body. Through our baptism, as God's holy people, we all have a vocation, so we can't put up our hands and claim, "it's nothing to do with me." God has given all of us his or her own special, unique gifts, to serve the community; and our community will only flourish if we all use our gifts to ensure that we remain vibrant and united in the Lord., whether through school, family, parish or work, in the best way we can.

Readings for the Fourth Sunday of Easter - Year C

FIRST READING Acts 13:14, 43-52

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to the synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats.

When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God has given them.

The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly. 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said:

I have made you a light for the nations,
so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.'

It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside.

But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 99:1-3, 5

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

R: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness.
Come before him, singing for joy.

R: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.
He made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

R: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.
He is faithful from age to age.

R: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

SECOND READING Apocalypse 7:9, 14-17

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION John 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 10:27-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice;
I know them and they follow me.
I give them eternal life;
they will never be lost
and no one will ever steal them from me.
The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone,
and no one can steal from the Father.
The Father and I are one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
